Trade Fairs and Shows For Sellers of Art, Vintage and Antiques

GAIL MCLEOD

EDITOR
ANTIQUES NEWS & FAIRS

At Antiques News and Fairs, we predict positive changes for the art and antiques industries in 2022. We see a trend towards greater collaboration, consortiums, and cross-branding, and believe industry alliances could serve to futureproof the entire industry. Another inspiring trend is fairs and marketplaces working together to establish year-round exposure for exhibitors with branded in-person selling opportunities for marketplace subscribers.

ANF is delighted to partner with Ronati to provide up-to-date dynamic data for the Guide to Trade Fairs and Shows, an essential resource for the antique, vintage, and design industries.

Founded in 1998, ANF works to establish worldwide contacts between private and trade buyers and sellers in antiques, vintage, and interior design. ANF also promotes antiques fairs and event organizers by publishing the latest news and feature content.

The ANF Antiques Fairs Calendar is widely regarded as the global industry leader covering both virtual and in-person events in the UK and USA.

The unique ANF “traffic light calendar” design keeps readers up-to-date in the ever-changing landscape of the events industry during the pandemic and beyond.

The Dealers of the New Hampshire Antiques Show, August 2019.

The NHADA began with an enthusiastic small group of dealers who met at the Long Meadow Inn in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, in the early 1950s. The aim of the group was to "...elevate and maintain the standards of the antique business in New Hampshire, to increase general public awareness and appreciation of articles of antique value, to promote the best interests of all phases of antique dealing..." Dues were five dollars.

Today the association has just under 200 members who endorse these same early objectives and traditions while finding themselves at the forefront of a much larger business. From its humble beginnings, NHADA is now one of the most respected dealer organizations in the country.

Founded in 2017, Fresh is Britain's biggest provincial art fair. The fair is widely regarded as a competitor to the major London fairs. There are three key benefits to exhibitors: first, no upper limit on art pricing, second, fewer exhibitors therefore less competition for visitor spend, and third, more generous stand charges. Hosting on average, 50 leading galleries showing 6,000 works by 600 artists, our venue is a purpose-built exhibition centre with world class facilities and unlimited free parking. At the gateway to the Cotswolds, Cheltenham reaches a highly affluent community embracing Birmingham, Oxford, Bath, Bristol, Cardiff, Worcester, and Gloucester.
