Trade Fairs and Shows For Sellers of Art, Vintage and Antiques

GAIL MCLEOD
EDITOR
ANTIQUES NEWS & FAIRS

The trend towards greater collaboration, consortiums, cross-branding and industry alliances will serve to futureproof the entire industry.

Another inspiring trend is fairs and marketplaces working together to establish year-round exposure for exhibitors with branded in-person selling opportunities for marketplace subscribers.

ANF is delighted to partner with Ronati to provide up-to-date dynamic data for the Guide to Trade Fairs and Shows, an essential resource for the antique, vintage, and design industries.

Founded in 1998, ANF works to establish worldwide contacts between private and trade buyers and sellers in antiques, vintage, and interior design. ANF also promotes antiques fairs and event organizers by publishing the latest news and feature content.

The ANF Antiques Fairs Calendar is widely regarded as the global industry leader covering both virtual and in-person events, offering a comprehensive listing of events from Sweden to San Diego!

Event schedules can change on short notice: the ANF “traffic light calendar” keeps readers up to date.

The fairs calendar in 2023 saw some interesting and welcome additions to the roster at key locations – including a celebrated return of the LAPADA flagship event in Berkeley Square – which inspired confidence in the market overall. The calendar got off to a confidence-building start with a spectacular Decorative Antiques & Textiles Fair at Battersea and we look forward to more industry staples enjoying a busy year in 2024.

Founded in 2017, Fresh is Britain's biggest provincial art fair. The fair is widely regarded as a competitor to the major London fairs. There are three key benefits to exhibitors: first, no upper limit on art pricing, second, fewer exhibitors therefore less competition for visitor spend, and third, more generous stand charges. Hosting an average of fifty leading galleries showing 6,000 works by 600 artists, our venue is a purpose-built exhibition centre with world-class facilities and unlimited free parking. At the gateway to the Cotswolds, Cheltenham reaches a highly affluent community embracing Birmingham, Oxford, Bath, Bristol, Cardiff, Worcester, and Gloucester.

It's over 40 years since our very first Sunbury Antiques Market at Kempton Park Racecourse took place and thanks to the dedication, enthusiasm and vision of our founder, the late Sue Cruttenden, we've gone from strength to strength.

From modest beginnings, this family run business has organically evolved into the largest and longest running twice-monthly market in the country and we are immensely proud to be recognised as one of Europe's premier antiques markets.

Now and in conjunction with the hugely popular bi-monthly events 'Sunbury Antiques Market at Kempton Park', our team have expanded operations to include 'Sandown Antiques Home & Interiors Fairs' at Sandown Park Racecourse – another outstanding location within the M25 with excellent road and rail links, and direct trains from London Waterloo, Clapham Junction and Woking.
